

D. Wesley Fowler, S.A.

Professional experience:

- Surveyor / appraiser - Marine Surveyor since 2005 with over 80 pre-purchase, C&V, and appraisal surveys on sailing vessels, power boats, and commercial vessels from 18' to 82'.
- Survey experience gained under the mentorship and guidance of Captain R.L. "Dick" Frenzel, A.M.S., CMS, owner of Dixieland Marine, Inc., Seabrook, Texas, and from Frank P. Hawthorne, A.M.S., CMS of Hawthorne Marine Survey and Consulting, Katy, Texas.

Credentials and Licenses:

- Society of Accredited Marine Surveyors - Surveyor Associate
- American Society of Appraisers USPAP course
- Havorn Marine Survey and Shipwright School, Seattle, WA, 2005 (Small Craft and Yacht Surveying)
- Charles F. Chapman School of Seamanship, Stuart, FL, 2006 (Damage and Claims)
- USCG licensed, OUPV with Commercial Assistance Towing endorsement
- Axial-flow heat engines (industrial gas and steam turbines), 20 years
- Conventional-fired and heat recovery boilers, 20 years
- Electrical power production, 20 years
- Graduate - Industrial Metallurgy, Lee College
- FAA licensed private pilot

Professional Memberships:

- American Boat and Yacht Council
- International Association of Marine Investigators

Publications:

- "Marine Metal Corrosion - A Layman's Guide to Corrosion Associated with Pleasure Craft Metals" - D. Wesley Fowler, S.A., 2007.

Sailing Experience:

- 22+ years experience, auxiliary sailing vessels, Gulf of Mexico, Caribbean, and Mediterranean Seas.

Continuing Education:

- Fundamentals of Marine Engineering, Texas A&M University Galveston, advisor Henry W. Fredrickson, B.S., Texas A&M University.